WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

REFLECTION AND PREPARATION

And he prayed to the LORD and said, “O LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from disaster.”

- Jonah 4:2

So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

- John 10:7-10

And they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.”

- John 10:7-10

CORPORATE CONFESSION

Let us pray:

Heavenly Father,

You have loved us with a love beyond our understanding and called us to be holy as you are holy. Yet, we have gone deaf to your call and sought a righteousness of our own. You have called us into the church, your Body, yet we have continued to live as individuals, being factious, and spurning the unity you have called us to. You have called us to love our neighbor and to serve one another, yet we have ignored the needs of our neighbor and served our own self-interests. You have told us to love our enemy and pray for them, yet we have reviled those who revile us, and we have used our words to speak ill against our neighbor. Father forgive us. Forgive the ways we have substituted your truth with lies. Forgive how we have sought our own kingdoms rather than yours. Forgive us; and soften our hearts to your word, open our eyes to your will, direct our steps to follow your path, and hear our prayers of silent confession...

If you are unable to come forward, please notify the server walking around with the elements. You are welcome to participate in the Lord's Supper if you are a baptized Christian and a member of an evangelical church. If this does not describe you, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer to consider your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ, refrain from partaking until doing so. The Lord's Supper is a time for our faith to be strengthened and our hope renewed.

Exploring Worship

Teacher: Chris Griffith

Why do Christians worship God the way they do?

Human beings have no greater privilege than to come into the presence of the Living God in order to worship Him. When we understand who God is, we realize we have no other reasonable response than to fall on our faces before Him in adoration and praise. But oftentimes our attention is so much on the idea of worship that we lose focus on the object of worship -- our Lord himself.

Join us this summer as we dive into R.C. Sproul's series on "Worship" to try to understand what it is that Christians do in worship and why we do it the particular way we do at CTK so that we may worship our Lord in spirit and in truth.

Romans, pt. 1

Teachers: Matthew Shaughnessy & Michael Gembola

The book of Romans has a delightful way of bringing both comfort to a weary sinner and clarity to one confused by the doctrines that underpin the grace of our salvation. In this class we will look at the first 11 chapters of Paul's letter where the apostle presents a clear account of many of the foundational doctrines of our faith.

The Stories Behind the Songs

Teacher: Andrew Martin

Room #201

Many of our hymns and songs were inspired by stories of God's work in the lives of his children. As we learn these stories of God's presence among his people in the past, may he empower us to continue singing today with an ever-growing obedience to Christ and confidence in his promises to faithfully care for his followers in the future.
