ADVENT READING

9:00: The Mohnsens
10:45: The Shaughnessys

But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth; then the rest of his brothers shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. And he shall be their peace.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.”

*PRAYER OF ADORATION

CORPORATE CONFESSION

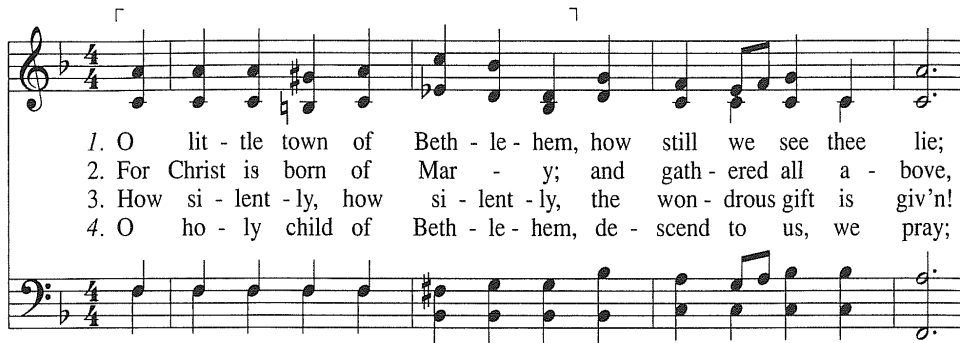

Let us pray:

Eternal and merciful God, you have loved us with a love beyond our understanding, and you have set us on paths of righteousness for your name's sake. Yet we have strayed from your way; we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, through what we have done and what we have left undone. You have called us to be holy as you are holy, but we have broken your law. You have called us to trust in your wisdom, but we frequently pursue our own ways. You have called us to take up our cross and follow you, but we continue to follow the world and our flesh. Father, forgive us. As we remember the lavish gift of your grace, we praise you and give you thanks that you forgive us. Grant us now, we pray, the grace to die daily to sin, and to rise daily to new life in Christ, who lives and reigns with you, and in whose strong name we now silently confess our personal sins...

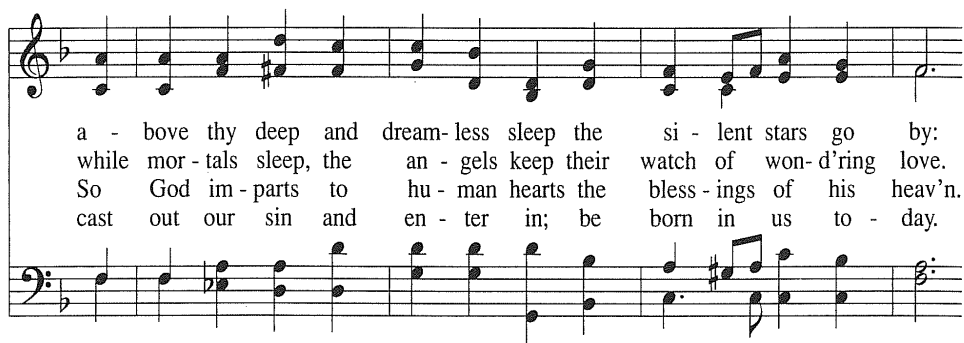

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON | Titus 3:4-7

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

THE LORD'S SUPPER | See comments below

We come forward by row to receive the elements. Wine is found in red cups (outer ring), grape juice in clear cups (inside rings). Gluten free wafers are available in both serving lines. If you are unable to come forward, please notify the server walking around with the elements. You are welcome to participate in the Lord's Supper if you are a baptized Christian and a member of an evangelical church. If this does not describe you, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer to consider your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ refrain from partaking until doing so. The Lord's Supper is a time for our faith to be strengthened and our hope renewed.

Virtual Sunday School Videos!

VOLUNTEER NEEDS

The music ministry is in need of volunteers! In efforts to have more of a rotation of musicians, we are looking for some more Music Ministry volunteers! If this sounds like something you would be interested in, please contact the office at sotto@ctkroanoke.org or Parker Adams at adams143@cox.net. This would not be an every Sunday expectation.

CHRISTMAS EVE CANDLELIGHT SERVICES

We will have two services on Christmas Eve. 4:30 pm and 6:00 pm. We will also have a live stream of the 4:30 pm service which you can access via our website: ctkroanoke.org.

We are asking that if you attend the 4:30 pm service to please wear a mask when in the building. If you will not be wearing a mask for reasons related to health or conscience please attend the 6:00 pm service where there will be people both wearing and not wearing masks.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

We will be having our annual meeting on January 17, 2021. At this meeting we will be voting on candidates to serve as officers. Frank Smith and Bob Saville have been renominated to serve on the session. They both have previously served as elders at CTK. The session is presenting them both for election.

We will also be voting to change the calls of Tobias Riggs and Andrew Martin from Assistant Pastor to Associate Pastor.

An Assistant Pastor is a pastor who has been called by the session, whereas an Associate Pastor is called by the congregation. The session believes that both Tobias and Andrew have shown love, faithfulness, and care for this body. It is evident that they are shepherding the flock with truth and grace. It is also clear to the session that the congregation has received both of these men as their pastors and as such we believe it is right to change their call to Associate Pastor. Since an Associate Pastor is called by the congregation, it requires a congregational vote. At the meeting we will discuss the terms of their calls (this means we will discuss their compensation package).

Since we expect to continue to be doing two services come Jan. 17th, we will have opportunity to vote immediately after both services.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to one of the elders or a pastor.
