REFLECTIONS

Very few of us live in settings congenial to God-loyalty and among people who affirm a costly discipleship. Hardly a day goes by that we do not have to choose between compliance to what is expedient and loyalty to our Lord. The stories [of Daniel] keep us alert to what is at stake day by day, hour by hour. - Eugene Peterson

Grant, Almighty God, as long as our pilgrimage in this world continues, that we may feed on such diet for the necessities of the flesh as may never corrupt us; and may we never be led aside from sobriety, but may we learn to use our abundance by preferring abstinence in the midst of plenty: Grant also, that we may patiently endure want and famine, and eat and drink with such liberty as always to set before us the glory of thy Name—Amen. - John Calvin

*PRAYER OF ADORATION

CORPORATE CONFESSION

Let us pray:

Almighty God, you have raised Jesus from the grave and crowned him Lord of all. We confess that we have not bowed before him or acknowledged his rule in our lives. We have gone along with the way of the world and failed to give him glory. We confess that we are often captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We have not loved our neighbor as ourself nor have we submitted our thoughts, words, and deeds to you. Forgive us. Raise us from sin, that we may be your faithful people, obeying the commands of our Lord Jesus Christ, who rules the world, is head of the church, his body, and Lord over our lives. We pray in his name, even as we confess our individual sins in silence.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON | Colossians 1:13-14

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

What love could remember no wrongs we have done
Omniscient, all-knowing, He counts not their sum
Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore
Our sins, they are many, His mercy is more

Chorus:

Praise the Lord!
His mercy is more
Stronger than darkness, new every morn
Our sins, they are many, His mercy is more

What patience would wait as we constantly roam
What Father, so tender, is calling us home
He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor
Our sins, they are many, His mercy is more

Chorus

What riches of kindness He lavished on us
His blood was the payment, His life was the cost
We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford
Our sins, they are many, His mercy is more

Chorus

Questions to the Officers:

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, as originally given, to be the inerrant Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?
2. Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures; and do you further promise that if at any time you find yourself out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine, you will, on your own initiative, make known to your Session the change which has taken place in your views since the assumption of this ordination vow?
3. Do you approve of the form of government and discipline of the Presbyterian Church in America, in conformity with the general principles of biblical polity?
4. Do you accept the office of ruling elder or deacon in this church, and promise faithfully to perform all the duties thereof, and to endeavor by the grace of God to adorn the profession of the Gospel in your life, and to set a worthy example before the Church of which God has made you an officer?
5. Do you promise subjection to your brethren in the Lord?
6. Do you promise to strive for the purity, peace, unity and edification of the Church?

Question to the Church Members:

Do you, the members of this church, acknowledge and receive these brothers as ruling elders and deacons, and do you promise to yield them all that honor, encouragement and obedience in the Lord to which this office, according to the Word of God and the Constitution of this Church, entitles them?

THE LORD'S SUPPER | See comments below

We come forward by row to receive the elements. Wine is found in red cups (outer ring), grape juice in clear cups (inside rings). Gluten free wafers are available in both serving lines. If you are unable to come forward, please notify the server walking around with the elements. You are welcome to participate in the Lord's Supper if you are a baptized Christian and a member of an evangelical church. If this does not describe you, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer to consider your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ refrain from partaking until doing so. The Lord's Supper is a time for our faith to be strengthened and our hope renewed.

(No. 565) | All For Jesus!

James, 1889 | Stainer, The Crucifixion, 1887

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time. It consists of two systems of music. The first system contains five verses of lyrics, and the second system contains the concluding lines of the hymn. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature of 4/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves.

He is Lord, He is Lord!
He is risen from the dead and He is Lord!
Ev'ry knee shall bow, ev'ry tongue confess
That Jesus Christ is Lord.

and to the Holy Ghost;

Missionary Visit in February

Thank you for your support!

There is no missions without the local church. We are that local church who partners with various ministries globally, regionally, and locally. Thank you for your generosity to the budget which includes the funds we have for missions support. May we, the congregation of CTK, long to be better servants of Jesus Christ in praying for these partnerships and their gospel work.

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. - Matthew 28:18-20

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Intro to CTK - Library, Room 204

Knowing God - Room 207

“What were we made for? To know God. What aim should we set ourselves in life? To know God. What is the ‘eternal life’ that Jesus gives? Knowledge of God. ‘This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent’ (John 17.3).” So writes J. I. Packer in his classic book Knowing God. Come join us as we read and discuss this book and learn what it means to know—and to be known by—God. Taught by Tobias Riggs.

Westminster Confession of Faith

Room 209

“Christ the King has been blessed with a rich theological heritage. ‘We are standing,’ as J. Gresham Machen wrote, ‘in what we hold to be the great central current of the Church’s life--the great tradition that comes down through Augustine and Calvin to the Westminster Confession of Faith.’ But what is this current, and how does it inform what we believe and how we live? Come join us as we continue our study of the Westminster Confession of Faith. Taught by Larry Yeager, Matthew Shaughnessy, and Stuart Bowman.
