ORDER OF WORSHIP
JULY 12, 2026

REFLECTIONS

It would seem that Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.

— C.S. Lewis, The Weight of Glory

There is nothing better for a person than that he should eat and drink and find enjoyment in his toil. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God, for apart from him who can eat or who can have enjoyment? — Ecclesiastes 2:24–25

*PRAYER OF ADORATION

CORPORATE CONFESSION

Let us pray:

O Heavenly Father, in whose presence there is fullness of joy, and at whose right hand are pleasures forevermore, we come confessing our sin and our need of mercy. You have built a house, prepared a feast, and borne its whole cost, asking of us nothing but our need; and yet we have wandered toward tables you did not set for us — eating bread in secret and calling stolen water sweet. We have looked for comfort and delight in our circumstances rather than in you, listening to folly's invitations and forsaking the pleasantness of your ways. In this we have not listened to your voice, but have preferred our own simple ways to the wisdom you hold out to us. Forgive us, for the sake of him who welcomes sinners to his own table, and sets before us joy that will not fade. We ask this in the name of Jesus, even as we now confess our individual sins in silence.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON | Isaiah 55:6-7

Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

The One who made the heavens, made my heart and soul
Before I drew a breath, I was loved and known
I am His creation, the Maker's masterpiece
And all that He designs will be done in me

Chorus:

I belong to the Lord, oh, I am not my own
I belong to the Lord, I am not my own
I will honor Him for this I know
I belong to the Lord, I am not my own

My body is a temple of the living God
I'll worship in this house that His blood has bought
As I bear His image, oh, may I not profane
The holiness I hold in this earthly frame
(Chorus)

And if He has redeemed me, I am not my own
The measure of my worth is His love alone
He declares my standing, and He declares my state
So I will know myself by the name He gave (Chorus)

I am not my own and now my heart is free
O Maker, come and make what You will of me
There is nothing broken that You cannot repair
So Lord, I leave my life in Your loving care
(Chorus 2x)

Beneath the cross of Jesus / I find a place to stand,
And wonder at such mercy / That calls me as I am.
For hands that should discard me / Hold wounds which tell me come.
Beneath the cross of Jesus / My unworthy soul is won.

Beneath the cross of Jesus, / His family is my own.
Once strangers chasing selfish dreams; / Now, one through grace alone.
How could I now dishonor / The ones that You have loved?
Beneath the cross of Jesus, / See the children called by God.

Beneath the cross of Jesus / The path before the crown,
We follow in His footsteps / Where promised hope is found.
How great the joy before us / To be His perfect bride.
Beneath the cross of Jesus, / We will gladly live our lives.

*SONG OF FAITH | (No. 164) | O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

Wesley, 1739 | Glaser, 1784-1829

1. O for a thou- sand tongues to sing my great Re- deem - er's praise,
 2. My gra- cious Mas - ter and my God, as - sist me to pro - claim,
 3. Je - sus, the name that charms our fears, that bids our sor - rows cease;
 4. He breaks the pow'r of reign - ing sin, he sets the pris - 'ner free;

the glo - ries of my God and King, the tri - umphs of his grace.
 to spread through all the earth a - broad the hon - ors of thy name.
 'tis mu - sic in the sin - ner's ears, 'tis life and health and peace.
 his blood can make the foul - est clean, his blood a - vailed for me.

5. He speaks and, list'ning to his voice,
 new life the dead receive;
 the mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
 the humble poor believe.

6. Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
 your loosen'd tongues employ;
 ye blind, behold your Savior come;
 and leap, ye lame, for joy.

THE LORD'S SUPPER | See comments below

We come forward by row to receive the elements. Wine is found in red cups (outer ring), grape juice in clear cups (inside rings). Gluten free wafers are available in both serving lines. If you are unable to come forward, please notify the server walking around with the elements. You are welcome to participate in the Lord's Supper if you are a baptized Christian and a member of an evangelical church. If this does not describe you, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer to consider your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ refrain from partaking until doing so. The Lord's Supper is a time for our faith to be strengthened and our hope renewed.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Wisdom's Table: Learning to Live Wisely

Sanctuary

"Fear of Yahweh is the first step — square one — in the quest for a meaningful existence." So writes scholar Tremper Longman on the book of Proverbs.

This summer we take that step together, working through eleven sessions on the practical domains of everyday life — friendship, speech, money, pride, pleasure, family, and suffering — letting Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes press on the questions we're already living. While our sermon series proclaims what Proverbs says, this class is a further opportunity to wrestle together with what it means for how we actually live. Taught by Tobias Riggs.

Each week, this class will focus on one of Jesus' teachings and seek to understand the point Jesus is trying to make in his use of hyperbole.
